

Health & Safety Policy

Work Safe - Go Home Safe

Lynch Interact is committed to ensuring the health and safety of all employees, subcontractors and members of the public visiting our sites, so far as are reasonably practicable. A safety statement has been prepared in accordance with Section 20 of the Safety, Health and Welfare at Work Act 2005. The statement specifies the safety, health and welfare measures implemented to protect, so far as is reasonably practicable, all persons associated with Lynch Interact.

Without prejudice to the generality of that duty, the matters to which that duty extends in particular include:

- To comply in full with all Irish and European legislative requirements.
- The provision and maintenance of plant, machinery, equipment and systems of work that are, so far as is reasonably practicable, safe and without risks to health.
- Making arrangements for ensuring, so far as is reasonable practicable, safety and absence of risks to health in connection with the use, handling, storage and transport of articles and substances.
- The provision of all relevant information, instruction, training, supervision and personal protective equipment as is necessary to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health and safety at work of employees.
- The maintenance of any place of work under the control of Lynch Interact, in a condition that is safe and without risks to health so far as is reasonably practicable.
- The provision and maintenance of a working environment for employees that is, so far as is reasonably practicable, safe, without risks to health and adequate as regard facilities and arrangements for their welfare at work.
